

Components of CPS

- Institutional care
- Non-institutional care
- Child tracking system
- Emergency outreach services

Children's rights

- Survival rights
- Development and education rights
- Protection rights
- Participation rights

For Child Protection Scheme details, contact:

Childline: 1098

Police: 100

Talk about the rights of children, talk about their respect

The Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS) gives support to all children in need of care and protection, and raises hope in them

About CPS (erstwhile ICPS)

Child Protection Scheme, erstwhile ICPS, is covered under the umbrella of Integrated Child Development Scheme (ICDS), Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India.

This scheme aims to create a safe and protective environment for children. It caters to children in need of care and protection (CNCP) and children living in difficult circumstances.

Objectives of CPS

CPS works on the principles of protection of rights and best interest of the children under Juvenile Justice (care and protection of children) Act, 2015 and Model Rules, 2016.

As per this scheme, children up to 18 years of age who are CNCP and live in difficult circumstances are provided with rehabilitation and support. There are homes for children where they are provided nutrition, education, training, health services and rehabilitation.

Purpose of CPS

Better quality of child protection activities and better outreach

- Public awareness of child rights, their situation in India and protection of children
- Specific duties of child protection and their accountability obligations
- Installed structures at all government levels for statutory and support services to children living in difficult circumstances
- Active monitoring and evaluation

Beneficiaries of CPS

- Children in conflict with law
- Abandoned and orphaned children
- Missing children
- Children engaged in begging
- Children living on streets
- Rag pickers
- Children in need of care and protection

